General comments
In 2021, the company Agropecuária São Sebastião do Araguaia presented a complaint to the public prosecutor's office alleging that the Legal Reserves of the properties (including Fazenda São Sebastião) are being invaded and degraded by external groups (1). The properties are being claimed by smallholders' groups since 2008. The association representing the smallholders claims that a private armed security company is threatening the families to remove them from the area (2). The CAR covering the area was declared by the linked company Itapurá Agropecuária in 2017 and is still under analysis (3). The company Agropecuária São Sebastião do Araguaia was incorporated by Itapurá Agropecuária in 2021 and is owned by WLM Participações e Comércio de Máquinas e Veículos, a company listed on the Brazilian stock exchange (4).
