| General comments  |  |   |              |  |
| In 2019, a group of land grabbers (grileiros) - Ediney José do Carmo, Eliziano José Alberto de Souza, and Junior de Carvalho, "o Paraíba" - took over a property in Nova Maringá (MT) owned at the time by Shijuko Hourinouchi Saito (left by Goichi Saito). A legal process was initiated to reinstate the ownership of the property and safeguard the rights of the expropriated owner(s). Even though the Court's preliminary decision re-instated the legal ownership, the land grabbers had already cleared 2,420 ha of forest in the property, burned vegetation and stolen timber allegedly supplied to timber mills in the region (1). A CAR declared by Edvin Soupinski (Fazenda Nossa Senhora Aparecida III), under analysis, covers part of the property (2). In Paraná state, Soupinski is a member of the cooperative Copacol, a chicken and fish producer (3). |  |   |              |  |
